A Harvey, a chara,

I have learned from our good mutual friend, Bill Broderick, of your great interest in, and support, for Ireland. As the Representative of Ireland in New York, I am very pleased to welcome you to this City for the Annual Dinner of the Physically Challenged Irish and American Youth Team, a wonderful charity that does so much good for Irish and American young people. This year the Honoree of the Dinner is a valued and proud member of your extended clan, the great Jimmy Duffy – and given all that Jimmy has done for the Youth Team over the years, there could not be a worthier recipient. I know that Jimmy will be delighted that you are here.

I want to say to you, Harvey, how much we appreciate your interest in Ireland. You have made your home over the years in beautiful Adare (which, by the way is only about 20 miles from my own home Parish of Killeedy in West Limerick – olam katan, as your Jewish grandparents might have said!)

I was sorry to hear of your illness, but very pleased to hear that you were well looked after by the Regional Hospital in Limerick last year – and that you were the recipient of good Irish blood! I wish you well for a continued recovery and express my deepest thanks to you for being such a great supporter of my country. We hope that you and your wife will continue to visit us regularly and that you will continue to get a great céad míle fáilte – a hundred thousand welcomes.

Míle buíochas arís as ucht do chuid suime – is cara dílis thú. Go n-eirí an bother leat.

Is mise, le meas
